Renewal Of Treaty Debate Is Assured

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 2.—Countering the Democratic move to take up the peace treaty again in the senate, Republican leaders today gave notice that they would formally ask to bring the treaty up for debate next Monday, one day earlier than the Democrats had decided on. The development was regarded as practically assuring another long period of discussion.

In giving the notice in the senate, Senator Lodge, the Republican leader, said he would first ask unanimous consent to proceed to "consideration of the treaty with reservations."

"I trust," he added, "that unanimous consent certainly will be given. In case it is not, I shall make the necessary motion to suspend the rules."

The announcement, apparently took the Democrats by surprise. In some quarters it was predicted that many of the points at issue would be eliminated by an agreement on the basis of the work done by the informal bipartisan compromise committee.

The possibility that open debate would facilitate agreement on Article 10 and the Monroe doctrine, however, was regarded by many of the senators as remote.

GOVERNMENT TO ANSWER TRANSMEN

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 2.—An answer to the wage demands of the 2,000,000 railroad employees presented last July will be given tomorrow by Director General Hines at a conference with officers of the brotherhoods and other railroad unions. There was no intimation as to what the government's attitude would be, but it was said today that the answers would be definite and final.

ARE STOCKINGS EXPLOSIVE?

VIENNA, Feb. 2.—Police officials of this city are confronted with the question as to whether stockings may be explosive.

A man was seriously injured, a baby bruised and a home badly damaged here recently and officers were told by the injured man that while about the house in his stockings feet he had dropped a lighted cigarette on the floor and when he tried to stamp out the one stocking exploded. He said he found the stocking in a neighboring house and his wife had "replied" them. The authorities have a theory that the man was keeping in his room employees which he had stolen from a nearby munitions factory.

TEMPORAL AUTHORITY IS ESSENTIAL TO THE SULTAN

LONDON, Feb. 2.—Temporal authority is essential to the sultan of Turkey, and he should be allowed to remain in Constantinople as Caliph of the faithful, according to Emir Ali, Indian privy councillor, who for the last 45 years has held many offices in British India.

"The proposal to drive the Turks out of Constantinople is a concession to religious fanaticism, and if the Turkish administration is removed from the city the bitterest resentment will manifest itself in India and all Muslim countries," he said.

About 70,000,000 Muslim Moslems and 12,000,000 Shiahs Moslems in India, he says, are in agreement as to the sultan's continued rule at Constantinople. "They kept quiet during the war," he continues, "because they believed that no attempt would be made to disturb the existing order of things in the Turkish capital."

After saying that the principles of Islam are fundamentally opposed to Bolshevism, the Emir goes on: "Maintenance of the temporal authority of the sultan is necessary. His temporal and spiritual power cannot be separated. Moslems were assured in the late war that the Caliphate would not be interfered with and that Constantinople, Thracian and the homeland of the Turkish race would remain in their hands. And on this assurance Moslems and troops bore their full share of the fighting in various regiments."

Confetti Banned
PARIS, Feb. 2.—London in Parisian society who have in the past been famous for the brilliancy of their confetti given in their homes are making serious objection to orders issued by the prefect of police who has forbidden the throwing of confetti, or any other material, at social gatherings.

As a result of the prefect's order, the confetti of Paris this year will be confined to processions in the streets.

SHIPLOAD OF
RESERVATIONS ACCEPTABLE

LONDON, Feb. 2.—It is evident from the tone of editorial comment on Vincent Grey's recent estimate of America's position on the League of Nations that it set forth conditions which the undersecretary, Vincent Grey's statement declared the "best deal" of the United States in accepting the League of Nations is not due to hostility to the principle, but to constitutional questions and caution as to the possible effects of entering the League.

With the situation clearly explained by each an authority, newspapers here seem willing to give the United States the benefit of the argument that she is unwilling to make a radical departure from her former policy without due consideration.

Government Bares Details Of Alleged Election Frauds

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—Mrs. Corn M. Spiker, of Baltimore, went to Ellis Island today to complete formalities for the admission to this country of her daughter, Miss Emily Knowles, the English worker, who was detained with her baby on the way to John Mrs. Spiker and her husband, Lieutenant Percy R. Spiker, whom she met at a camp in England, while he was training to be an aviator, and she was a member of the women's auxiliary service.

Mrs. Spiker was accompanied by Guy S. Spiker, brother of the lieutenant, who has offered to marry Miss Knowles, and her lawyer, Benjamin Kirschstein. They took a $1,000 liberty bond to the island to deposit as required by the department of labor for the admission of Miss Knowles and her baby to this country for three months in care of Mr. and Mrs. William K. Battersby, of Fall River, Massachusetts. Mr. and Mrs. Battersby were expected to arrive here late today to take the 20-year-old mother and the child back to Fall River with them.

Mr. Kirschstein says he has received letters offering financial assistance to the girl praising Mrs. Spiker for her "magnanimous action and her sweet and forgiving nature," and commending Guy S. Spiker for his "chivalrous offer."

CHICAGO, Feb. 2.—The mysterious shooting of Mrs. Richard S. Folson, prominent Chicago society woman, who was taken to a hospital late Friday night with a bullet wound through her body, just below the heart, today was still unexplained.

A police investigator reported he had found the bullet, buried in the mattress of Mrs. Folson's bed. The course of the bullet through the mattress was downward, and according to Dr. Emanuel Fried, who attended Mrs. Folson, it passed through the body at an angle of less than fifteen degrees.

Mr. Folson, a former city corporation counsel, and Chief of Police J. J. Garvey, who was privately notified of the shooting, and made an investigation, announced yesterday that Mrs. Folson had been wounded by the accidental discharge of a revolver which she had taken from a dresser drawer.

According to Mrs. Folson's physician, she had been suffering from influenza the night before the shooting. Friday night she attended an automobile show with her husband and her father, General George M. Moulton, former commander in chief of the United States Army. Shortly after their return to the Folson home, Mrs. Folson retired to her room. A few minutes later, according to Mr. Folson, the shot was heard.

Mr. Folson had made no statement regarding the shooting, the two physicians attending her said today. The physician announced Mrs. Folson probably would recover.

HEARING

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 2.—When the commission which is seeking to settle the differences between the operators and miners in the bituminous coal industry resumed hearings today the operators were ready with statements to support their side of the wage dispute. Figures involving the payroll of 11 mines in the central competitive fields, they said, showed how much the miners are earning to what extent their work is irregular, and the losses incurred by them in failing to take advantage of the opportunity to work.

POLES ABANDON PROPOSED DRIVE ON BOLSHEVIKI

LONDON, Feb. 2.—The Bolshevik delegates at Dorpat declare that Poland has abandoned her military preparations against Russia, which were to be followed by simultaneous attacks upon Moscow and Petrograd, according to a Central News dispatch from Reval, Estonia, today. Poland has taken this course, the delegates say, because Livonia, "in accordance with the peace treaty with the soviet," has withdrawn her promise to place her army and the harbor of Reval at Poland's disposal.

Chairman Robles announced that the commission expected to conclude the examination into the central fields Wednesday and to begin hearings on the antiliving fields Thursday. When both sides in the outlying districts have been heard the commission will have covered the whole bituminous industry.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—Secretary
Glass today asked congress for $2,000, 000 for use in stopping the smuggling of liquor into the United States. A statement from the division of customs accompanying the request said that because of the large facilities for smuggling, with the quantity of liquor smuggled into the country, the quantity of liquor seized was infinitesimal in comparison with the quantity actually smuggled into this country.

With all of the long continued use of not a safe medicine, and it is not a pleasant one. It is a dangerous and

ARE YOU A TARGET FOR INFLUENZA?

It Hits Listless, Run-Down People First—Their Blood Is Thin
GERMS EVERYWHERE IN EPIDEMIC

Be Prepared—Strengthen and Build Up Your Blood With Pepto-Mangan

If it is true that you are not feeling your best—if you have that "always-tired" feeling and no interest or enthusiasm—then you should be careful of the influenza.

It is thin-blooded, anemic people that disease strikes first. The fact that you have had a very few serious illnesses has nothing to do with it. Everyone gets run-down occasionally, and when they do, the blood is in no condition to fight off disease germs because it has not enough red corpuscles. It is the red corpuscles of the blood that fight disease and save you from sickness.

You simply can't afford to take chances when influenza is striking down thousands everywhere. Fortify your blood—build it up with the pleasant tonic, Pepto-Mangan.

And should you be just recovering from influenza, you need Pepto-Mangan because your blood has exhausted its strength. Pepto-Mangan will help build you up.

Pepto-Mangan is widely and heartily endorsed by physicians. It is effective and easy to take. Comes in either liquid or tablet form. No difference in medicinal properties.

Sold at any drug store. But be sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan—"Gude's." Ask for it by the name and be sure the full name is on the package.—(Advertisement).

Death Twice Invades Home In Twelve Hours

Death twice within twelve hours visited the home of Warren T. Zuhars, 542 Second street, Sunday, removing from the home, Mr. Zuhars, captain of the Seventh Street Fire Company, and his aged mother, Mrs. Mary Zuhars, aged 74 years. News of the deaths Sunday came as a shock to the many friends of the family, it not being known that Mr. Zuhars or his mother were seriously ill. Captain Zuhars' death was caused by pneumonia. His mother passed away after an extended illness of infirmities and complications.

Mrs. Zuhars was up and around the house Sunday morning death claiming her about three o'clock Sunday afternoon, while Mr. Zuhars passed away at 8:10 Sunday morning.

Captain Zuhars had been ill since last Tuesday, when he took his bed. He had a bad cold and Friday developed pneumonia. He grew gradually worse from that time until Sunday morning, when he was claimed by death. He was unconscious 12 hours before death. The deceased was in the city fire department about seven years and had been captain for about three years. He suffered a frozen foot while fighting the West End car barn fire Christmas day. He was off duty a short time and several weeks ago was slightly injured in the head on collision of the fire trucks on Gallia street. Although injured he kept at his duties.

Captain Zuhars is survived by his wife, Julia, and five children: Edwin, Clifford, Raymond, Edith and Hazel Zuhars, all at home. He also leaves a sister, Mrs. Frank Moore, of Los Angeles, Calif.

Mrs. Mary Zuhars and son were born at South Portsmouth. Mrs. Zuhars was born Dec. 6, 1845 and her son was born Aug. 1, 1870. Theodore Zuhars husband of Mrs. Zuhars died many years ago. He was a steamboat captain and his son Warren took up the same line until he entered the fire department.

She had made her home with her son for 25 years. She had been ill for many weeks but did not complain of being seriously ill. Sunday morning she arose as usual and walked about the house. About noon she suffered an attack of weakness, fell, and never rallied.

Mrs. Zuhars was a member of the Methodist church at South Portsmouth. Captain Zuhars was a member of the Workmen of the World and Loyal Order of Moose.

A double funeral will be held from the home Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock with Rev. Morris Wakefield, a friend of the family from Ashland conducting the last rites. Burial in Green lawn.

240 CASES OF FLU IN THE CITY

Within the past six days 240 cases of influenza have been reported in this city according to Health Commissioner Dr. C. D. Telle.

There is nothing alarming in the disease, but people should take every possible means to prevent contraction of the disease. All homes where there is a patient are under strict quarantine, Dr. Telle said Monday.

The physicians are co-operating splendidly and the situation is well in hand. The past week the daily average of new cases was forty.

The disease has appeared in a comparatively mild form and the patients are yielding rapidly to treatment, local physicians aver.

The quarantine cards are to be left up three days after the patient is discharged by the attending physician.

Skin troubles need immediate and proper attention

Don't wait thinking they will disappear in time. Perhaps they will, but in the meantime you are suffering from the burning and itching, and allowing your nerves to become badly affected, when a little Resinol Ointment would doubtless relieve it all.

Unless the skin affection is caused by some internal disorder, Resinol Ointment usually clears it away because it contains harmless and soothing antidotes for such conditions. It can be used easily for it is so nearly flesh-colored it does not attract attention. At all druggists.

QUICK AND ECONOMICAL TRANSPORTATION

THE most difficult hauling problems of the heavy timber industry are simplified by the use of the Nash Quad. The Quad which drives and brakes on all four wheels will pull its load through soggy, slippery spots where other trucks find going almost impossible.

Like all Nash trucks it is equipped with the automatic locking differential which prevents loss of traction by spinning of the driving wheels. It also moves tires and fuel. Its economy of operation makes it an especially attractive investment.

The Markets

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—Although opinion was again sharply divided as to a result of developments over the weekend, prices at the opening of today's stock market were generally higher.
In several divisions, such as independent steels, equipments, motors and oil, early gains extended from 1 to almost 3 points. The railway list, however, gave no signs of following up their moderate advance of last Saturday. Unsettled foreign exchange conditions caused some reactions within the first half hour.

Influences which recently acted as a check to the market were again operative during the dull morning.
Further weakness of international credits was accompanied by statements emphasizing the probable effect of the exchange situation on this country's trade balance. Shipping and the cheaper oils were the first to give way, representing industrial and high priced specialties soon following.
Irregular rallies began with buying of rails, but a more severe setback ensued when call loans opened at 14 per cent.

Another slump in foreign exchange, high rates for call loans and an absolute lack of public interest were the chief factors in today's very dull and reactionary stock market. Sales approximated 475,000 shares. Sales approximated 475,000 shares. Sales ap-

WHERE BIG LEAGUE TEAMS WILL TRAIN

May Play California

ISN'T SCIENCE WONDERFUL!

PENNY ANTE

Collecting On Chips Loaned

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—New training quarters have been selected by a majority of the major league baseball clubs as the scene of their spring conditioning trips to the national training grounds for the season. Two of the training grounds, including the Philadelphia Athletics and the St. Louis Cardinals, which trained at home in 1919, have decided to seek new fields for their work-outs. The remaining six will return to the training grounds where they prepared a year ago.

As has been the case for several years, the state of Florida will lead as a popular choice with Texas running a close second. These two states will act as hosts for seven clubs while Georgia, Alabama, Louisiana and Arkansas will each accommodate two. California will again be the scene of the spring training of the Chicago Nationals, the Cubs returning to the state where they were successfully located two months ago.

The complete 1920 training camps together with a roster of the quarters for the previous season, follows:

BOUT WITH MARTIN PUTS RAY SMITH IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Smith was picked to add Smith to his list of opponents. The bout was staged by the Marceline Tenney Fund of the American Legion in Cleveland.

U. S. Needs Adequate Patrol Along The Mexican Border

EL PASO, Tex.—The United States is in vital need of an adequate patrol along the Mexican border, according to George J. Harris, supervising inspector of the transportation service here. The Harbison bill, now pending in congress, would meet this need and help in retarding the country of bandits, and other radical elements, he said as well as furnish increased power necessary to combat drug and tobacco smuggling.

Establishment of bases of detection, such as Ellis Island, Mr. Harris declared, would not effectively prevent the entry of "undesirables" unless the government establishes a force along the Mexican border through which such persons could not easily pass.

"It is true," continued the immigration official, "that we have at present border stations along the Mexican border from the Gulf to the Pacific coast, established to guard the border. But when you take into consideration that hundreds of miles separate several of these stations, it is not to be expected that the situation can be covered with adequately, so that we can prevent the entry into our country of undesirable aliens or stop the smuggling of whiskey and dynamite which is daily being accomplished with little danger of detection."

Smuggling across the border is increasing at an alarming degree," Mr. Harris added.

Gena Kishner.

"Gena Kishner," remarked the Observer of Events and Things, "and they never will concede that the miles are their superiors."

WHAT'S A CHAMP WITHOUT A DOG?

Jack Dempsey and his favorite puppy.

Nowadays a ring champion must have a ferocious looking dog lurking about his training quarters or home to be right up to snuff. The puppy that Jack Dempsey is holding can't be called exactly ferocious looking as yet, but Jack has hopes. Dempsey's raising him from a baby to the ways of a champion mascot.

Eight recruit pitchers will be given an opportunity to show whether they are ready for major league company. A squad of 31 players is expected.

CANTER GOING AFTER SPEED VIOLATORS

Team In Good Shape

Quite a number of followers of the F. H. S. Basketball team met the squad at the N. & W. station last night.

Elza Canter newly appointed deputy sheriff and official dog catcher, assigned his duties yesterday and this morning at the sheriff's office it was announced the campaign to enforce the dog law in Scioto county is now on the earnest.

Many licensees were sold last week, the total tags disposed of to date numbering more than 1,500, but there are still many untaxed canines outside the fold and a vigorous effort is to be made to round them up. Prosecutions of dog owners who have failed to comply with the law, it was stated by Sheriff Tucker this morning, will follow the finding of untaxed dogs.

The new deputy sheriff when not engaged in chasing dogs will devote his time to rounding up speed violators on the highway leading from the city.

CHILDREN START HYGIENE CAMPAIGN

BISMARCK, N. D.—More than 20,000 North Dakota school children are enrolled in a statewide campaign for personal hygiene and cleanliness.

The fact was brought out in an announcement by the executive committee of the state Anti-Tuberculosis association, outlining the organization's program for 1920.

School teachers throughout the state report that the work has made a marked improvement in the studies of the pupils. A celluloid button, known as the "hygiene button," is awarded the student who performs daily deeds such as brushing teeth, keeping hands clean, etc. A silver button is awarded for more extensive work and a gold "knight banner" is given if the habits are maintained for 15 consecutive weeks.

The Anti-tuberculosis Association plans to enlarge the work among school children the coming year.

Ashland Here Friday

Portsmouth High contests with Ashland High on the local floor next Friday night in what promises to be the hardest fought game on the home floor so far this season.

Ashland defeated P. H. S. on the Kentucky floor earlier in the season and the red and blue quintet is still nursing the defeat with dire threats of vengeance on next Friday.

The foremost of the local dopsters is that P. H. S. will send the Kentuckians home a crestfallen aggregation; and if the local crowd plays the brand of ball that is in them the prospect probably will come true.

On Saturday night Chillicothe sends her scholastic fire her to combat Couch team's squad, and if the red and blue gets down to work for one half only, they will certainly beat the camp town aggregation.

Portsmouth High has excellent timber and a good coach but it seems that the jinx has been following on her heels so far this season.

And then again, the locals have run into a hurricane of real basketball when they hooked up with the Huntington and Athens High teams last week. They were lucky to get out from under without being more severely beaten by these two premier five, according to those who have followed the dope on these teams.

ATHENS MAY WIN CHAMPIONSHIP

With the defeat of Portsmouth High by Athens Saturday night, Athens looms up with Stivers High of Dayton as the probable contenders for the Southern Ohio High School Championship.

Stivers High defeated Athens High recently by a margin of about 10 points, and with the defeat of Portsmouth High Saturday night, the chances of coping the southern Ohio championship look quite gloomy for the peerless city lads.

Stivers meets Portsmouth on the local floor February 14th, and this, the dopsters say, will decide just who's who in the scholastic basketball circles of Southern Ohio.

MASON WILL MEET JIMMY WILDE

ANTI-TOXIN AND NURSES FIGHTING FLU IN CHICAGO

City courts in health commissioner's place sealing bottles of anti-toxin and city nurses busy for a day's work.

A flu epidemic which may become as serious as that of last winter may sweep the nation, health officials warn unless all possible precautions are used to prevent spread of the disease. Chicago is now battling a serious wave of flu and pneumonia—the common cold being an aftermath of the flu in many cases. New death records have been set in that city and the city's entire health force is fighting the wave. Anti-toxin distributed by the city is being administered to victims.

THE DESIRE OF ALL

SENATOR BORAH tells his associates that they are not carrying out the pledge of the republican party to reduce government expenses and he means at "the 157 varieties of committees"—assembly investigating committees—that have been appointed to write the party platform and winds up by an appeal to republicans and democrats to join hands in cutting expenditures to the bone.

That is the most sensible and timely thing the Senator has ever said and the whole country will give hearty accord to it. Steady insistence on it ought to win him the nomination for President.

Congress, like the individual, is not getting on a peace business. During hostilities money was spent by it lavishly and with scant question. That was right. It was no time to haggle and delay. The one supreme thing was to win. We won, but we must return to sobriety and moderation. Admittedly a wonderful era of prosperity and expansion prevailed, but there is an air of unreality and uncertainty in the situation; a positive danger. Economy and prudence should be the watchwords. Congress must set the example. As long as it continues upon a career of extravagance and improvidence so long will continue the people.

Certain it is that if congress cut estimates a billion dollars and it could easily do that the country, and business as well, would be put upon a more solid and safe basis.

HARKING TO THE GOOD OLD DAYS

THE farmers of one of the central counties have formed an anti-auto thief society. Doubtless the idea will spread to other counties and a revival in nature and purpose of the old horse thief societies may be expected.

Some forty years ago horse-stealing was as common as auto theft is now. The officers of the law proved powerless to stop the crime. Finally, in desperation, the farmers organized an anti-horse thief society. Whenever an animal was stolen a hue and cry was raised and immediately a self-constituted posse, committee was formed. The members took different roads and when the scent of the horse thief was taken up it was followed to the end. Generally, the posse returned with the horse, seldom with the thief. No explanation was offered as to this rather singular condition and questions as to the why and wherefore were not welcomed.

It wasn't long, however, before horse-stealing became a most unpopular pastime. Officials seen equally powerless nowadays to stop the numerous thefts of automobiles, but there is a preventive. Maybe the new society will find it.

AN ILL WIND THAT IS GOOD

THE United States will have no mandate for Armenia, Turkey, or any other of the far east Country.

This much may now be taken as assured for events have shaped themselves to that result negative. Not that Armenia, with a lively sense of favor to come, did not eagerly look to America, nor that Turkey did not prefer us, while the rest were ignorantly indifferent as to what fate a mandate might have in store for them, but while we were busily wrangling and contending over the peace treaty, England, France, Italy and Greece were more diligently grabbing whatever was nearest and handiest, and having between them seized all, they are not going to let go to any other nation, unless they have to, and there is not the slightest probability of the United States making any demands in that direction.

It is a pretty mess, thus precipitated and one highly provocative of future clashes. There are no well defined boundaries in any of the seized possessions. The claims run up against and overlap each other and the sphere of separate influence is in no way defined, while over most of the territories the Turk and the Arab rove as a turbulent and menacing element.

A QUESTION OF QUALITY

GOVERNOR SMITH recommends to the legislature of New York that it provide some means of paying for the improved roads of the state before they wear out.

From this we infer that while New York is famed for good roads, she hasn't built permanent ones. A good road may be a rather temporary affair, indeed, it all too frequently is unless constant and quick repairs be made. A permanent road is different. The labor and cost of repair is negligible over a long period and if it be rightly constructed it will last for several years and without renewal. Take as a promising example, the first piece of so-called permanent road ever laid in Scioto county. This extends from the northern tracks of the Norfolk & Western on Gallia street a mile out on the Scioto Trail. This was constructed, if we mistake not, in 1909, or eleven years ago. In the main it is apparently as good as the day it was opened to traffic and nothing has been paid for its upkeep, except where it was torn away to make other improvements. No other section of road in the county has been subjected to such continuous and heavy traffic. In its early days hundreds of wagons, loaded with clay, passed over it. Since then the land adjacent thereto has been extensively developed and teams and automobiles are constantly passing thereover.

It has been already paid for, but it was, by the way, the cheapest ever improved in Scioto county, considered as to durability and efficiency, of course, it having cost a little over nine thousand dollars. Any other kind of road, subjected to the same wear and tear, would have disappeared long ago, some a dozen times.

SHE MARRIED AN AVERAGE MAN

No sooner was my resolution taken to write immediately to Jim than I felt like a different woman. A great burden seemed lifted from my heart. The cheap remembrance of my late father's death and my late mother's death faded. A little dream of home and garden and my husband's companionably took place.

Yes, gods, how a woman craves to be loved! How we stumble about from one environment to another, from one activity to another, from one experience to another—always searching for the love that will satisfy us and be our life!

We bump our head and hearts. We fall down. We pick ourselves up again and go on. We weep and we get lonely and we go to people. We get lonely and we go to people. We get lonely and we go to people. We get lonely and we go to people.

Huntington Has No Water

HUNTINGTON, Feb. 2.—Due to the fact that several of the larger pumps of the city water works being out of repair and sand clogging the intake tanks of the other pumps, this city, as well as Kenova and Ceredo, are without water. Most of the available supply in the reservoirs was drawn out during the fire at Kenova Friday evening and much worry is felt, due to the present situation.

Tom Candidates.
 Scioto Lodge 1, O. O. F., will have ten candidates for the first degree this evening and one of the largest meetings held in several weeks. Noble Grand Eli Speake asks that all members of the degree team and all candidates report on time.

Will Say So.
 Portsmouth must have been "why" on the lips of last week as compared to Nelsonville in fact in up-state coal metropolis they dismissed school for several days because the "kids" couldn't get to school. Funny sort of kids they grow up there.

1918 Death Rate Was Highest On Record

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 2.—The death rate in the United States for 1918, was the highest on record, according to the census bureau's annual mortality statistics issued today, which shows 1,471,967 deaths for the year representing a rate of 15 per 1,000 population.

Of the total deaths 477,467, or over 32 percent, were due to influenza and pneumonia, 259,306 having occurred in the last four months of the year when an epidemic of these diseases prevailed. The rate for influenza and pneumonia was 63.2 per 1,000.

The rate in 1917 for influenza was 17.2 and for pneumonia 14.8.

The other principal causes of death were organic diseases of the heart, tuberculosis, acute nephritis, Bright's disease and cancer, which together were responsible for 331,321 deaths, or nearly 27 percent of the total during the year.

MYSTERY SHROUDS SHOOTING OF WOMAN

CHICAGO, Feb. 2.—The mysterious shooting of Mrs. Richard S. Folsom, prominent Chicago society woman, who was taken to a hospital late Friday night with a bullet wound through her body, just below the heart, today was still unexplained.

A police investigator reported he had found the bullet buried in the mattress of Mrs. Folsom's bed. The source of the bullet through the mattress was downward, and, according to Dr. Emanuel Freund, who attended Mrs. Folsom, it passed through the body at an angle of less than fifteen degrees.

Mrs. Folsom, a former city corporation counsel, and Chief of Police J. J. Connelley, who was privately notified of the shooting, and made an investigation, announced yesterday that Mrs. Folsom had been wounded by the accidental discharge of a revolver which she had taken from a dresser drawer.

According to Mrs. Folsom's physician, she had been suffering from influenza the night before the shooting. Friday night she attended an automobile show with her husband and her father, General George M. Montfort, former commander in chief of the United Spanish War Veterans. Shortly after their return to the Folsom home, Mrs. Folsom retired to her room. A few minutes later, according to Mr. Folsom, the shot was heard.

Mrs. Folsom had made no statement regarding the shooting, the two physicians attending her said today.

The physicians announced Mrs. Folsom probably would recover.

ARE STOCKINGS EXPLOSIVE?

VIENNA, Feb. 2.—Police officials of this city are confronted with the question as to whether stockings may be explosive.

A man was seriously injured, a badly bruised, and a house badly damaged here recently and officers were told by the injured man that while about the house in his stockings he had dropped a flaming cigarette on the floor and when he tried to stamp out the fire one stocking exploded. He said he found the stocking in a neighboring village and his wife had repaired them. The authorities have a theory that the man was keeping in his room explosives which he had stolen from a nearby munitions factory.

OPERATORS WILL GET HEARING

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 2.—When the commission which is seeking to settle the differences between the operators and miners in the bituminous coal industry resumed hearings today the operators were ready with statistics to support their side of the wage dispute.

Figures involving the payroll of 11 mines in the central competitive fields, they said, showed how much the miners are earning to what extent their work is irregular, and the losses incurred by them in failing to take advantage of the opportunity to work.

In addition to the wages and hours data was prepared dealing with working conditions, safety provisions, profits and the cost of living in mining communities which the operators claimed in a statement by Attorney Ralph Coss was a "frank exposition of the ground work of the coal industry" that would put a new light on the contentions of the mine owners.

Chairman Robinson announced that the commission expected to conclude the examination into the central fields Wednesday and to begin hearings on the mining fields Thursday. When both sides in the on-going districts have been heard the commission will have covered the whole bituminous industry.

CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 2.—Police today were seeking a man in a United States navy uniform as the slayer of Frances Altman, 22 years old, a chorus girl of Philadelphia or Patterson, New Jersey, the fifth murder victim here in four days. The woman was known as Mrs. Francis Altman Stockwell. Her body was found yesterday afternoon in the snow in a vacant lot and lay unidentified in the county morgue until this morning. She had been a member of a burlesque company which played here last week. She was last seen alive Saturday night.

GOMPERS, AT 70, CALLS WORK HIS GREATEST TONIC

Samuel Gompers, for thirty-nine years head of the American Federation of Labor, recently celebrated his seventieth birthday—at work. "I don't feel over forty," he said. "Work is the greatest medicine I know of."

LONDON, Feb. 2.—It is evident from the tone of editorial comment on Viscount Grey's recent estimate of America's position on the League of Nations that it set forth conditions little understood before. Viscount Grey's statement declared the hesitation of the United States in accepting the League of Nations is not due to hostility to the principle, but to constitutional questions and caution as to the possible effects of entering the league.

With the situation clearly explained by such an authority, newspapers here seem willing to give the United States the benefit of the argument that she is unwilling to make a radical departure from her former policy without due consideration.

In Powerful Appeal

The letter is viewed as a powerful appeal to America to enter the league and the Sunday Observer pleads for the establishment of the league quickly, even if it is only a consultative body without the United States.

"Let us meet the United States liberally and boldly as to leave her not an excuse for standing out," the newspaper says.

Complaints over reservations proposed by United States Senators should be stopped, the newspaper says and invites the United States to send over a "shipload of them," adding: "The more America's reservations are indulged, the less she is inclined to insist upon them."

Appeals For Patience

Nations, big and little are showing their worst sides to each other, the newspaper goes on and it asserts "that the heart and soul" of Viscount Grey's plea is patience.

"After saying: 'there is a deplorable tendency to cast the major responsibility for Europe's on American shoulders,' the Times says the Viscount's statement arrived at a most opportune moment and those who direct it will find misunderstanding removed and comprehension established."

FUR PRICES TO BE HIGHER NEXT WINTER

ST. LOUIS, MO., Feb. 2.—Prices of furs will be decidedly higher next winter, according to buyers attending the winter auction of the International Fur Exchange here, which opened today.

More than six hundred buyers from all parts of the world were in attendance. More than 15,000,000 pelts, valued at approximately $25,000,000, will be disposed of during the sale, which will continue through February 13. The sale is expected to be the largest in the history of the trade.

The prospective increase in prices is assigned to the embargo placed on higher grades of furs by Australia and to the Bolshevik uprisings in Russia, which, it was said, virtually has paralyzed the fur trade in that country.

Philip H. Fouke, president of the exchange, in an address said about half the furs of the world were represented at the sale, as the visible supply of the world's furs at present is worth about $20,000,000.

Fots to be sold today included nine thousand government seal skins from the Pribiloff Islands and 1,200,000 Russian squirrel.

OPENING STOCKS

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—Although opinion was again sharply divided as a result of developments over the weekend, prices at the opening of today's stock market were generally higher. In several districts, such as independent steel, equipments, motors and oils, early gains extended from 1 to almost 3 points. The railway list, however, gave no signs of following up their moderate advance of last Saturday. Unsettled foreign exchange conditions caused some reactions within the first half hour.

Strike Averted By Compromise

THE DESIRE OF ALL

SENATOR BOBAH tells his associates that they are not carrying out the pledge of the republican party to reduce government expenses and be more at "the 157 varieties of committees"—assumably investigating committees—that have been appointed to write the party platform and winds up by an appeal to republicans and democrats to join hands in cutting expenditures to the bone.

That is the most sensible and timely thing the Senator has ever said and the whole country will give hearty accord to it. Steady insistence on it ought to win him the nomination for president. Congress, like the individual, is not getting on a peace business. During hostilities money was spent by it lavishly and with scant question. That was right. It was no time to haggle and delay. The supreme thing was to win. We won, but we must return to sobriety and moderation. Admittedly a wonderful era of prosperity and expansion prevails, but there is an air of unreality and uncertainty in the situation, a positive danger. Economy and prudence should be the watchwords. Congress must set the example. As long as it continues upon a career of extravagance and improvidence so long will continue the people.

Certain it is that if congress cut estimates a billion dollars and it could easily do that the country, and business as well, would be put upon a more solid and safe basis.

HARKING TO THE GOOD OLD DAYS

THE farmers of one of the central counties have formed an anti-thief society. Doubtless the idea will spread to other counties and a revival in nature and purpose of the old horse thief societies may be expected.

Some forty years ago horse stealing was as common as auto theft is now. The officers of the law proved powerless to stop the crime. Finally, in desperation, the farmers organized an anti-horse thief society. Whenever an animal was stolen a hue and cry was raised and immediately a self-constituted posse committatus was formed. The members took different roads and when the scent of the horse thief was taken up it was followed to the end. Generally, the posse returned with the horse, seldom with the thief. No explanation was offered as to this rather singular condition and questions as to the why and wherefore were not welcomed.

It wasn't long, however, before horse-stealing became a most unpopular pastime. Officials seem equally powerless nowadays to stop the numerous thefts of automobiles, but there is a preventive. Maybe the new society will find it.

AN ILL WIND THAT IS GOOD

THE United States will have no mandate for Armenia, Turkey, or any other of the far east Country.

This much may now be taken as assured for events have shaped themselves to that result negative. Not that Armenia, with a lively sense of favors to come did not eagerly look to America, nor that Turkey did not prefer us, while the rest were ignorantly indifferent as to what fate a mandate might have in store for them, but while we were busily wrangling and contending over the peace treaty, England, France, Italy and Greece were more diligently grabbing whatever was nearest and handiest, and having between them seized all, they are not going to let go to any other nation, unless they have to, and there is not the slightest probability of the United States making any demands in that direction.

It is a pretty mess, thus precipitated and one highly provocative of future clashes. There are no well defined boundaries in any of the seized possessions. The claims run up against and overlap each other and the sphere of separate influence is in no way defined, while over most of the territories the Turk and the Arab rove as a turbulent and menacing element.

A QUESTION OF QUALITY

GVERNOR SMITH recommends to the legislature of New York that it provide some means of paying for the improved roads of the state before they wear out.

From this we infer that while New York is famed for good roads, she hasn't built permanent ones. A good road may be a rather temporary affair, indeed, it all too frequently is unless constant and quick repairs be made. A permanent road is different. The labor and cost of repair is negligible over a long period and if it be rightly constructed it will last for several years and without renewal. Take as a promising example, the first piece of so-called permanent road ever laid in Scioto county. This extends from the northern tracks of the Norfolk & Western on Gallia street a mile out on the Scioto Trail. This was constructed, if we mistake not, in 1909, or eleven years ago. In the main it is apparently as good as the day it was opened to traffic and nothing has been paid for its upkeep, except where it was torn away to make other improvements. No other section of road in the county has been subjected to such continuous and heavy traffic. In its early days hundreds of wagons, loaded with clay, passed over it. Since then the land adjacent thereto has been extensively developed and teams and automobiles are constantly passing thereover.

It has been already paid for, but it was, by the way, the cheapest ever improved in Scioto county, considered as to durability and efficiency, of course, it having cost a little over nine thousand dollars. Any other kind of road, subjected to the same wear and tear, would have disappeared long ago, some a dozen times.

THE MARRIED AVERAGE MAN

No sooner was my resolution taken to write like a different woman, I felt like a different woman. A great business seemed to find from my heart. The cheap remembrance of my companion with Lynch and Wayland last night faded. A little dream of home and garden and my husband's companionship took place.

Ye gods, how a woman craves to be loved! How we stumble about from one environment to another, from one activity to another, from one experience to another, always searching for the love that will satisfy us and be our ideal!

We bump our head and hearts. We fall down. We pick ourselves up again and go on. We weep and we laugh. We try to think things out. We get lonely and rush to people. We get sick of people and seek solitude. Is there any love, anywhere that satisfies? And how, HOW does one find it?

"By giving it," whispers my good angel. "To a woman who does not know how to give up her own wishes can find love, for unselfishness is love's greatest test. No woman who cannot be patient, forgiving, big-minded, self-controlled, can have the love that lasts and satisfies. The oldest truth in the world is that love begets love."

Suddenly a vision of Jim—the old Jim, whom I married—rose before me, and with a feeling of infinite tenderness I sat down and wrote this letter:

"Jim, my dearest: With a new, clear understanding I see how stupidly wrong I have been. I come to you as a small child streeps up to a grown person toward whom it has shown a wicked temper and disobedience. I ask you to forgive me, Jim. I realize you owe me no forgiveness. Yet you are a big enough man to know that forgiving is after all a privilege, and a proof of strength and of right. Yes, you are in the right. I am wrong.

"And my blindness has persecuted me. I have been blind—blind—anything like I see now what the worthwhile things are and what are valueless. The things you offer me—home, protection, love (I hope I still have your love, Jim) are what I long for. The things I returned to taste are dust in my mouth.

"Forgive me, dear, and let's be happy. We who have once belonged, can surely renew the ties that bound us first in mutual love. I know now that bonds can be sweet when they are bonds of understanding, of a mutual sweet understanding to make a home, perhaps to hear little voices and they feet patter.

"They say a person cannot learn a great lesson in ten minutes. But I find it doesn't take long to learn mortal hunger. I am starving, Jim, for the wholesome food of life! I want to come and be a real wife, make a real home for you.

"I am so weary of trying to be strong and independent. I am weak! I don't WANT to be independent! I want to be taken care of like a poor little who has been lost and miserable and alone and frightened. I want to be comforted and forgiven and told 'not to mind—that it's all right now.'

"I am just realizing what a precious thing I have nearly thrown away. Love and marriage are much to a man. But they are infinitely more to a woman.

"I'll come on the street, in the shop, in office, in this very house, in whose eyes I read a consuming desire to belong.

"Some of them are so starved for love and comradeship that they make terrible sacrifices for even a cheap counterfeit! Yet here am I, throwing the great gifts away. And for WHAT? A will of the wisp, an im-

Huntington Has No Water

HUNTINGTON, Feb. 2.—Due to the fact that several of the larger pumps of the city water works being out of repair and sand covering the intake valves of the other pumps, this city, as well as Kenora and Toledo, are without water. Most of the available supply in the reservoirs was drawn out during the fire at Kenora. Friday evening and much worry is felt, due to the present situation.

New-York-Day-By-Day

BY
O. O. McIntyre

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—A page from the diary of a modern Samuel Pepys: Every so often the Germans were dodging under it and scampeling to have their clothes to the water. A bunch of some thirty five attempted this trick but the barrage backed up and they were forced to advance. Caught the fugitives and wiped them out, all except one man.

He flung himself into an American trench at the feet of a big American. This chap looked him over and sang out: "Wily, you lucky son of a gun! Then struck a bayonet through him."

It was during the noon hour, when restaurants are most crowded. There were an elderly man well dressed, and a middle aged woman over-dressed. Her cheeks bore a little flush, her eyes were aglow—she was far too excited to eat and gazed a stream of words into her companion's ears.

"And, forsy, you should have seen him—such pride in his bearing as he stood on that divine silver cushion before a hanging of the same shade. I tell you he was gorgeous. Can't you picture the contrast? His smoke colored skin and his amber eyes. I know the judge would give him the blue ribbon."

"They couldn't have done otherwise. And he deserved it, he certainly did. My precious Persian. I can't see why you object to his sleeping with us. Why, when I told Mrs. Smith that you objected she was so surprised. She simply couldn't understand it. All four of her pet Angoras sleep with her."

"Let her," he snapped, with an out-pour of his jaw. "You can pin Oscar's blue ribbon to the footboard. But he won't sleep with me. That's flat."

And for fifteen minutes the woman was silent—and he looked furiously looking off into space and wondering about something. Hysterical knows what Mops and the Canadians and what!

Details were soon settled—number in the family, hours for meals, days out, no laundry, how often the drawing room had to be dusted, when the silver had to be cleaned, etc.

As an Arab Saying. Remember three things come not back: The arrow sent upon its track—it will not swerve, it will not stay its speed; it flies to wound or slay. The spoken word, so soon forgot by thee; but it has perished not; in other hearts, 'tis living still. And doing work for good or ill.

Remembering. The doctors says he'll let me know in a week whether I'm going to live or not. And what are you to do in the meantime? He told me to take complete rest and, above all, not to worry about anything.—Blighly.

An Important Preview. Good election stories are not plentiful, especially new ones; but here's a scintilla that happened a few years ago that is rather amusing. The manager of a shrewdly assembled his employees and told them that they might vote in a municipal election just as they pleased.

"In fact, I shouldn't even tell you how I am going to vote," he said; then added: "After it is all over I shall have a box of beer brought into the ward. (Hear! Hear!) shouted the men. But I shan't tap it unless Mr. Blank gets in!—Boston Transcript.

Fifty-Fifty. The wife of a military man advertised for a girl to do general housework. The police was responsible to a particularly neat and competent young colored woman. The

BILLY WHISKER

BY FRANCES TREGO MONTGOMERY

When the firemen turned the hose on the map-covered Billy Whisker, he ran first on one side and then on the other. But no matter where he went the stream of water followed him and played all over him, and he stopped running and hugged the fence. It was worse than ever, for then the water flowed in a perfect stream and doused him from head to foot, sending a spray over the fence.

All the firemen had come out to see the fun and when the policeman in the next yard heard a great deal of laughing and racket in the firemen's back yard, they too hurried to the fence and watched the fun.

Of course, this only added to Billy's rage, to see his hated enemies, the policeman, laughing at him, and he vowed he would get even with them some day, and with the firemen right away, for he knew his strength. With a loud and quick gasp, he made for the group of firemen that were tormenting him and batted and hooked them in all directions, until the firemen who was playing the hose on him sprawling into the tub of soapy water that but a few minutes before he had had Billy in.

When the fireman came back dressed for the parade with the rose chain in his hand that he was to lead Billy, he spoke the stern words, and said: "Why, Billy, you beat any bad boy I ever heard of for mischief! Now you will have to come into the station and have another wash with soap and water. And I let you show this one, for I will let it as close to your neck as you can't reach it with your mouth."

As they went in the station Billy heard a loud saying and the rattling of the drums, and when they heard the music the engine horses, all decked in rose collars and bridles, with plumes in their heads, started to prance and pull the beautifully draped and polished engine out of the station to join the procession.

And before Billy knew what was up, he was led off and made to march in the procession behind the engine and hose cart.

(What happened to Billy in the parade will be told tomorrow.) Copyrighted by the Sanfield Publishing Co., Akron, O.

Death Twice Invades Home In Twelve Hours

Death twice within twelve hours invaded the home of Warren T. Zuhars, 210 Sunday morning. Captain Zuhars had been ill since last Tuesday, when he took his bed. He had a bad cold and Friday developed pneumonia. He grew gradually worse from that time until Sunday morning, when he was claimed by death. He was unconscious 12 hours before death. The deceased was in the city five days, about seven years and had been captain for about three years. He suffered a frozen foot while fighting the West End car barn fire Christmas day. He was off duty a short time then and several weeks ago was slightly injured in the head on collision of the fire trucks on Gallia street. Although injured he kept at his duties. Captain Zuhars is survived by his wife, Julia, and five children: Edwin, Clifford, Raymond, Edith and Russell Zuhars, all at home. He also leaves a sister, Mrs. Frank Moore, of Los Angeles, Calif.

Mrs. Mary Zuhars was born at South Portsmouth but had been a resident of this city for many years. She had made her home with her son for some time. She had been ill for many weeks, but did not complain of being seriously ill. Sunday morning she arose as usual and walked about the house. About noon she suffered an attack of weakness, fell, and never rallied.

Mrs. Zuhars was a member of the Methodist church at South Portsmouth.

240 CASES OF FLU IN THE CITY

Within the past six days 240 cases of influenza have been reported in the city, according to Health Commissioner Dr. C. D. Taffy.

There is nothing alarming in the situation, but people should take every precaution to prevent contraction of the disease. All homes where there is a patient are under strict quarantine.

Dr. Taffy said Monday: "The physicians are co-operating splendidly and the situation is well in hand. The past week the daily average of new cases was forty."

The disease has appeared in a comparatively mild form and the patients are yielding rapidly to treatment, local physicians aver.

The quarantine cards are to be left up three days after the patient is discharged by the attending physician. It will be left up not so much to protect the patient but to protect others who would go into the house. Work and fixtures in the patients' room and all bedclothes should be thoroughly washed.
